Use Case UC4: Join Group/Panel
Scope: Interest-based Social Site
Level: User goal
Primary Actor: User
Stakeholder and Interests:
User: wants to join a group panel to be able to interact with users within the group.
Preconditions: User has an account on the website. The user is logged into the site.
Success Guarantee: User has their group list updated for their profile.
Main Success Scenario:
1. User clicks to update personal info/add interests.
2. User browses/searches list of groups and selects a group they wish to join.
3. User clicks "join group" on the group page.
4. The user's active group list is updated and user is returned to the group page.

Extensions:
2a. user cannot find an interest group.
1. User can submit a group request.

Special Requirements:

Technology and Data Variations List:
Possible search for interest if the list of selections is too long. How we store groups.
Frequency of occurrence:
Whenever a user would want to participate in discussions about interests and have other user interactions. (Whenever)